HOW you can HELP

"Do a world of good" so says the opening picture on the Lutheran World Relief web site. "Investing in families" and "uniting for impact" say other titles as you scroll though the pictures of families trying to overcome their life of poverty. "In a world of crisis, do a world of good."

From Pastor Trent Ready for Christmas ???

⁷ Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸ And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work.

2 Corinthians 9:7-8

It is that time of year again. The Thanksgiving meal has been served. The dishes have been washed. The day is almost here - Black Friday! Christmas gift lists are being prepared and plans are being drawn up how to best check each item off the list, one gift at a time. Gift giving season is coming!

Inevitably, every year I will be asked the question with respect to my Christmas list, "Are you ready for Christmas?" And every year, regardless of how close it is to the fast approaching date, I respond by saying, "No, not yet, I still have time." With regard to this process, I tend to put things off. I get about the business of busyness, and before I realize it, there are no more days left on the calendar and Christmas is here. How about you? Are you ready for Christmas?

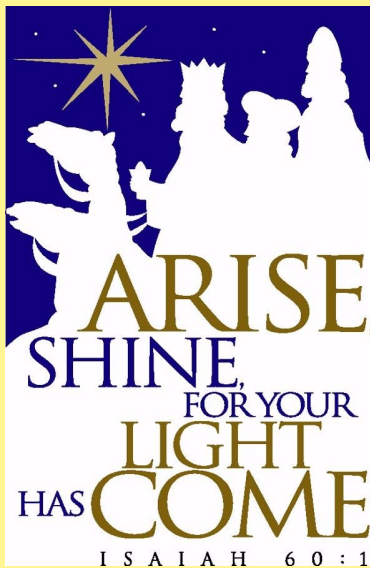

December 1st marks the beginning of Advent this year and we are reminded that Christ has come and is coming again – let earth receive her King! We are also reminded that God's gift of grace comes to us in the presence of Jesus Christ in our lives wrapped up in relationship. As we are invited into relationship with Christ, we are called into relationship with all our human siblings. While kindling our relationships with family and friends around the fireplace, we must also hold our distant and not-so-distant neighbors in our hearts as well.

All I Want for Christmas ..

Relative to much of the world, we live out of a place of privilege. We live out of an abundance of resources that provide us with unparalleled opportunities. During this season of gift giving, we have an opportunity to share out of the abundance with which we have been entrusted. There are people who suffer hunger, food insecurity, and lack of access to the nutrition necessary for life and health. With the Holy Spirit working in, with, and through us, we have an opportunity to bring relief, instill hope, and end hunger and poverty wherever it exists.

This Advent, we will have the opportunity participate in the ELCA World Hunger campaign by supporting God's Global Barnyard. Resources, which include a family Advent calendar, an Advent study booklet, and a "Barnyard Bank", will be distributed at church and mailed upon request. If you have people in mind that you would like to remember this Christmas, but don't know what to get them, how about some chicks, a pig, or a goat given in their names to a family in need across the globe? As a family, if you would simply like to help out by contributing to God's Global Barnyard, prayerfully consider setting some money aside each day and putting it in the "Barnyard Bank" to purchase an animal that will change a family's life by giving them a livelihood.

Before we go "all in" on Black Friday — a day of sales, buying, and consumption — let us take time to reflect prayerfully on the difference between wants and needs, on generosity toward our neighbors, on stewardship of wealth and abundance, on everything God has entrusted to us, and on our true identity as children of God who are loved, forgiven and granted a new vision of life.

Peace and Blessings,

Pastor Trent

Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens Date: Tuesday, January 7th
Time: 12 noon Leader: Lana Ferry
Lunch: Bring your own

For years, rumors of the "Marsh Girl" have haunted Barkley Cove, a quiet town on the North Carolina coast. So in late 1969, when handsome Chase Andrews is found dead, the locals immediately suspect Kya Clark, the so-called Marsh Girl. But Kya is not what they say. Sensitive and intelligent, she has survived for years alone in the marsh that she calls home, finding friends in the gulls and lessons in the sand. Where the Crawdads Sing is at once an exquisite ode to the natural world, a heartbreaking coming-of-age story, and a surprising tale of possible murder. Owens reminds us that we are forever shaped by the children we once were, and that we are all subject to the beautiful and violent secrets that nature keeps.

In This Season of Thankfulness

The church has received several thank you cards recently.

FROM HABITAT FOR HUMANITY—DOOR COUNTY: "God bless you for your continued partnership and trust. We'll put your gifts to work immediately. We are very close to approving our 43rd family and we have 6 home preservation projects on the schedule. We are planning for another busy year in 2020. God Bless You" - David

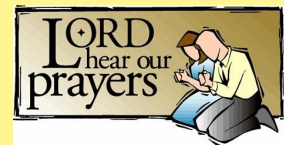

FROM LAKESHORE CAP: Our Food Pantry clients, staff, and volunteers thank you so much for your continued support with the Faith and Fellowship donation. This donation will allow the pantry to purchase more than 800 pounds of meat, coffee, cereal, baking goods, personal care items etc. from Feeding America.

In 2018, with your help, the pantry provided more than 72 tons of food to 5,968 Door County residents.

Thank you again for your concern for our friends and neighbors in Door County. The congregation's generosity not only nourished our client's bodies but their spirit as well.

*Sincerely
Sandi Soik—Lakeshore CAP*

Lunch & Literature FOR DECEMBER

The Forgotten Seamstress by Liz Trenow

Date: Tuesday, Dec.3rd Time: Noon

Leader: Margie Reynolds

Place: Hainesville Lutheran Lunch: Bring your own

She Kept Her Secret for a Lifetime...

A shy girl with no family, Maria knows she's lucky to have landed in the sewing room of the royal household. Before World War I casts its shadow, she catches the eye of the Prince of Wales, a glamorous and intense gentleman. But her life takes a far darker turn, and soon all she has left is a fantastical story about her time at Buckingham Palace.

Decades later, Caroline Meadows discovers a beautiful quilt in her mother's attic. When she can't figure out the meaning of the message embroidered into its lining, she embarks on a quest to reveal its mystery, a puzzle that only seems to grow more important to her own heart. As Caroline pieces together the secret history of the quilt, she comes closer and closer to the truth about Maria.

Page-turning and heartbreaking, The Forgotten Seamstress weaves together past and present in an unforgettable journey.

There is a lot more information about GOD'S GLOBAL BARNYARD on line through the ELCA web site. At church there are other resources to help you decide how to support this mission. There are GOOD GIFTS catalogues, children's coloring books, Advent devotional booklets, an Advent calendar, and even a barn for you to color in which to save your loose change. Look for the display downstairs or go the web site ELCA.org/goodgifts

Holly

Holly was first used by pagans to decorate for the festival of Saturnalia.

When Christians began celebrating Christmas in honor of Christ, they adapted that decorating practice to reflect Jesus' life and death. Holly's pointed leaves symbolize the crown of thorns and its red berries symbolize Christ's blood shed on the cross. Because holly thrives and its berries retain their brilliance even in harsh winter conditions, non-Christians saw it as a symbol of eternity — which is fitting for Christians as well.

The annual church meeting in February 2020 is quickly approaching. I ask that each of you consider serving on the church council as there will be several positions open. I think most of you are more than qualified to serve in some of these positions.

In 2020 the openings available are Vice President (2yr), Secretary (2yr), Property Trustee (3yr), Education Deacon (3yr), Auditor (2yr) and three people for next years Nominating Committee (1yr). If you are interested in one of these positions, please contact our current nominating committee consisting of Jan Shasta, Russ Klister, and Bill Albert. You may also contact a Council member. Please pray that our Lord will encourage you to offer your service to our church. Jim Vogel - Council President

A Light Shines in the Darkness

In Nepal, where blindness is prevalent due to under-funded medical care and a lack of eye doctors, ophthalmologist Sanduk Ruit has made it his mission to treat poor people. He's performed more than 130,000 cataract surgeries to restore sight, sometimes walking for a week with surgical equipment in tow to reach patients. Dr. Ruit also found a way for replacement lenses to be made locally for less than $3 each, rather than buying them internationally for 100 times as much. The physician brings healing to remote villages and celebrates "big eye-opening festivals" with people who "were blind yesterday, and ... are seeing today."

At Christmas we celebrate the Word of God who came to live among us as Jesus, the light of the world. In countless ways since, God has brought light to those living in literal or figurative darkness.

We celebrate people, such as Dr. Ruit and the 650 doctors he has trained, whom God uses to cause "light [to shine] in the darkness" (John 1:5)
