Hainesville Crossroads

Hainesville Lutheran Church ELCA Sturgeon Bay, WI

Hainesville Crossroads — JUNE 2019 EDITION

After his death and resurrection, Jesus appears to his disciples and shares that he will only remain with them for a little while longer. He shares that he will be ascending to his Father in heaven and he promises to send the Holy Spirit to be with them. Confused and Spirit is coming to set our hearts on fire, but before we feel the burn, perhaps our hearts must first be broken.

This past weekend, I had the privilege to attend the ECSW Synod Assembly as well as my daughter's graduation from Marquette University. After hearing the speakers at both events, I was left to ponder the question, "So now what?"

At the Marquette commencement ceremony, the student speaker, Jacob Zelinski, shared, "We carry a lot on our hearts. We etch in lessons and love and Christ's words right on top. When we etch things into our hearts, they become part of us, for it's in the heart's breaking that these etchings seep into who we are as human beings — emphasis on the being."

Considering Jacob's words, my thoughts moved to keynote speaker Pastor Sunitha Mortha's message at Synod Assembly. She asked us to consider the questions, "Who is our neighbor?" and "What is mission?" Pastor Mortha challenged us to consider how the story of mission is being formed and informed.

*From

unsure of what that even meant, the thought that Jesus would be going away would leave the disciples heart broken, wondering, "So now what?"

As we continue on our journey through the season of Alleluias, we rejoice in new life in Christ. Yet, much like the inquiring minds of the disciples who wanted to know, we ask ourselves, "So now what?" As Pentecost approaches, we have been given glimpses of what lies ahead on the horizon. The Holy

We will walk with each other, we will walk side by side..

Historically, the human concept of mission has been a one-way relationship based on assumptions – that someone has a need and we know best how to meet the need. This view is shortsighted. This view only sees a problem to be fixed and misses seeing the person.

Mission doesn't belong to us. Mission belongs to God and humanity is invited to participate in it, not the other way around. Mission is rooted in relationship. Mission is accompaniment, whereas accompaniment is defined as, "Walking together in solidarity that practices mutual hospitality." Accompaniment is listening deeply to one another.

Right now, we have a listening problem. Too many people believe that they have the "right" answer, so everyone else must be wrong. Too many people believe that their way is best, so any other way is inferior. Too many people believe that the only way to move forward to accomplish anything in this world is to speak louder than anyone else, so no one else can be heard. So now what?

Maybe Jacob Zeliniski is on to something. Perhaps our hearts need to break for Christ's words to seep in through the cracks and for the Holy Spirit to work in, with, and through us. Perhaps we need to let go of our efforts to make self-protection our priority. Perhaps we need to become vulnerable. Perhaps we need to take down the fences around our hearts so that we can others in.

The Holy Spirit comes to us so that we may live, love, and listen. So that we may listen to the voices that are different from ours. So that we may love fully. So that we may live out our baptismal callings. So now what? Listen. Listen deeply. Listen deeply to one another. Listen deeply to one another while walking together practicing mutual hospitality. This is how we are invited to participate in God's mission. Can you feel your heart burning?

Peace and Blessings,

Pastor Trent

Books Belief Belonging

New York socialite Caroline Ferriday has her hands full with her post at the French consulate and a new love on the horizon. But Caroline's world is forever changed when Hitler's army invades Poland in September 1939—and then sets its sights on France.

An ocean away from Caroline, Kasia Kuzmerick, a Polish teenager, senses her carefree youth disappearing as she is drawn deeper into her role as courier for the underground resistance movement. In a tense atmosphere of watchful eyes and suspecting neighbors, one false move can have dire consequences.

For the ambitious young German doctor, Herta Oberheuser, an ad for a government medical position seems her ticket out of a desolate life. Once hired, though, she finds herself trapped in a male-dominated realm of Nazi secrets and power.

The lives of these three women are set on a collision course when the unthinkable happens and Kasia is sent to Ravensbrück, the notorious Nazi concentration camp for women. Their stories cross continents—from New York to Paris, Germany, and Poland—as Caroline and Kasia strive to bring justice to those whom history has forgotten. (Book summary from Amazon.com)

Report from the 2019 Synod Assembly— Vicki Hannemann

Marla Vogel and I attended the ELCA Synod Convention at the Red Lion Paper Valley Hotel and Conference Center May 17-18. It was an amazing and uplifting experience. We enjoyed music and songs from the Glocal (Global AND Local) Band (they are actually a group of 178 people – music educators from diverse cultures) certain members, about 8 individuals are chosen for different events to participate. It was beautiful music and we learned different songs in different languages. We had a wonderful speaker, Pastor Sunitha Mortha, an immigrant from India to the U.S., speaking on accepting other cultures. She shared that we are all children of God and should be accepting and welcoming to all cultures because we are all children of God. The sermons during the Worship services were uplifting and enlightening. The experience was beyond my expectations! Thank you for allowing me to attend this conference.

July Lunch and Literature Book Discussion: Searching for Sunday by Rachel Held Evans

Date: Tuesday, July 2nd Time: 12 noon Leader: Jan
Place: Hainesville Lutheran Church Lunch: Bring your own

From New York Times bestselling author Rachel Held Evans comes a book that is both a heartfelt ode to the past and hopeful gaze into the future of what it means to be a part of the Church.

Like millions of her millennial peers, Rachel Held Evans didn't want to go to church anymore. The hypocrisy, the politics, the gargantuan building budgets, the scandals--church culture seemed so far removed from Jesus. Yet, despite her cynicism and misgivings, something kept drawing her back to Church. And so she set out on a journey to understand Church and to find her place in it.

Centered around seven sacraments, Evans' quest takes readers through a liturgical year with stories about baptism, communion, confirmation, confession, marriage, vocation, and death that are funny, heartbreaking, and sharply honest.

Summer Outdoor Worship Services

There will be several outdoor worship services this summer.

The first one will be Sunday June 23rd at 9:30 AM.

There will be several other outdoor services, all weather dependent. Bring a lawn chair and bring a friend !!

If the weather is uncooperative, we will hold the service in the sanctuary.

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Over the summer, keep in mind that we will be collecting items for LWR School kits. Quite a few drawstring backpacks have been donated that need to be filled. ONLY THE FOLLOWING ITEMS ARE PERMITTED

Watch for sales to stock up! All items for the school kits are to be new. Here is the list.

- * FOUR 70-sheet notebooks of wide-ruled or college-ruled paper (no loose leaf paper)

By the time the summer solstice occurs, it feels as if the season has been in full swing for weeks. It's bittersweet that just when summer officially starts, the length of daylight begins decreasing. Before we're ready to let go of the season, summer marches toward fall, and then winter with the year's shortest day.

Yet that is our Creator's plan: "You have fixed all the boundaries of the earth; you have made summer and winter" (Psalm 74:17, ESV). God fashioned the world to be beautiful, good and perfectly symmetrical. With concise order, he ordained seasons, rhythms, orbits and natural boundaries. As God's beloved children, we're blessed to enjoy the intricacies and patterns of this magnificent universe.
